

The President shall preside over all Corporation meetings, sign contracts and legal documents as approved by the Board, and be an ex-officio member of all committees. The President shall examine all reports of the officers and committee chairpersons of the Corporation, appoint committee chairpersons and may sign for the Treasurer in his absence all checks drawn on the treasury of the Corporation as directed by the Board. At the appropriate times the President shall appoint an Election Committee as well as representative(s) of the Ski Club to outside organizations such as Intermountain Ski Counsel.